
WLGS 22 Union Canal Museum [NT 0036 7692]

WLC site description

Part of the Bathgate Group sites

Other designations: LWS (Union Canal); SAM (Union Canal, River Almond to River Avon)

The Union Canal Museum in Linlithgow exhibits records, photographs and artefacts associated with the Union Canal. It is housed in a former canal stable situated on lavas and tuffs of the Bathgate Hills Volcanic Formation. Although no outcrops exist at this site, it is listed as there is potential for a museum exhibit on the geodiversity of the Union Canal.
